The Toronto Globe says dealers in that part of Camada have been freezing potatoes by the ear load in order to keep up the price. If the High Cost of Living Commis-sion has not got tired doing noth-ing for salary and quit it ought to investigate this matter.

If the east of living were what it ought to be, it would not be necessary for the Government to pay anch high rates of interest for ware funds. The profiteers not only accumulate fortunes by over-charging the public; by naking savings searce they force the Gov-ernment to bid high to get the money it needs to carry on the war.

When the war broke the 101st Fusiliers and the Alberta Dragons rewrited from among their members, and by taking in some outsides, the first two units to leave Edmonton for the front. Now the call has come to them for more men. The Fusiliers are to recruit a reinforcement comto recruit a reinforcement com-pany for the 49th Battalion, at the front, while the Dragon to recruit a reinforcement contempor for the 46th Battalion, at the front, while the Dragons will represent the front, while the Dragons will work the state of the front. There is no doubt that the fine spirit which brought such prompt response to the first call of King and country will be again displayed in meeting will be again displayed in meeting will be again displayed in meeting. Since their ranks were depleted by the departure of the units bearing their names for oversea, and despite the continuous loss of members who have foined other corps have been recruited again and kept in training. British Columbia prohibitionists claim to have evidence that the election agents sent over to take the votes of the soldiers in Eagland and France on the prohibition question resorted to "repeating" in order to bring in a maximum of the soldiers in the soldiers in Eagland and France on the prohibition of the soldiers in the soldiers of the vote being held four or five thousand miles away gave unusual apportunity for "skathduggery" of the kind. It is not the easiest of the soldiers of the soldiers

RACE FOR THE SPECIAL $50 IS A CLOSE ONE

Plenty of Room . for . New Candidates  After checking over the Contest Records the Contest Manager reports that several would have lost out on the special prize by a few dollars if the Special Offer had closed last Saturday. Make this your record week. If you win this $50 it will mean that you have been paid $25 per week for working in your own interests for one of the Bulletin's Free Prizes. If you do not win it, you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you have increased your standings considerably while working for it, at any rate.

Send in Your Nomination and Get Busy on the Extra Votes

The Toronto Globe says dealers in that part of Canada have been freezzing potatores by the car boad in order to keep up the price. If the High Cost of Living Cananis-sion has not got tired doing noth-ing for salary and quit it ought to investigate this matter.

If the east of living were what it ought to be, it would not be necessary for the Government to pay such high rates of interest for ware funds. The profiteers not only accumulate fortunes by over-charging the public: by making savings searce they force the Gov-ernment to bid high to get the money it needs to carry on the war.

When the war broke the Iblat Egalliers and the Alberta Dragooms recruited from among their members, and by taking in some outsiders, the first two units to leave Edmonton for the front. Now the call has come to them to be the their members, and by taking in some outsiders, the first two units to be the their control of the their control of the their company for the 49th Buttalion, at the front, while the Dragons will ruise a draft for the Camedian Mounted Riffe Brigade.
